

budding romance itinerary

Few places in Atlanta are more romantic than the Garden for a date night or simply spending time with the one you love.

- Nothing says romance like blooms, and the Garden prides itself on offering spectacular floral backdrops year round, from the fragrant blossoms of Orchid Daze (February - April) and colorful bulbs of Atlanta Blooms! (March - April) to the rainbow of summer displays of annuals.
- The best spots for couples' shots? Alston Overlook, the Cascades and during Garden Lights, Holiday Nights, the Kiss Me Arch by Sibley Fountain.
- On spring/summer Thursday nights, Cocktails in the Garden (May-September) and Fest-of-Ale (October) offer a fantastic evening with live music, deejays, games and bars scattered throughout the Garden, and features the summer exhibition and/or Scarecrows in the Garden.
- For the ultimately annual date night, don't miss Valentines in the Garden every February, offering decadent chocolates and live music, and Cocktails in the Garden, with cash bars and deejays spinning all your favorites.
- Top off any evening in the Garden with a romantic dinner at Longleaf restaurant, with its intimate patio and rooftop terrace for taking in all the surrounding beauty of the Garden.
