Consider pick up a "salvage opportunity", your scarecrow will not be in great shape after a month outside.

VISIT WITH YOUR SCARECROW

For each paid registration, you will be entitled to four (4) free daytime admission tickets to the Atlanta Botanical Garden, Gainesville during the exhibition, September 28 - October 31, 2021. Your registered name will be on a guest list at the entry to the Garden. Simply show up and give your organization, company, or family name.

RULES FOR ENTRY

Anyone can register! Families, community groups, small businesses, schools, and individuals are all welcome to participate.

GUIDELINES

The Garden reserves the right to refuse any entry that does not meet the criteria listed below.

- Build your scarecrow to be freestanding, with a base no larger than 3' x 3', easily carried by two people, and weigh less than 40 lbs. Scarecrows are secured, but not dug into the ground.
- You will not be allowed to set up your scarecrow in the Garden or choose your location. You can set up at the drop off point to show how it goes together or you can attach a photo of it assembled.
- Do not include live plant material or pumpkins in your display.
- Make your entry as durable and weatherproof as possible. Any scarecrow that deteriorates to an unacceptable level during the month will be removed.
  - Entries must be suitable for viewing by children. Entries in poor taste for family viewing, depicting controversial subjects, or overtly commercial in nature will not be accepted. Do not include your business logo.
  - The Garden provides signage identifying your organization and the name of your scarecrow. The Garden does not allow any additional signage, pamphlets or handouts to be displayed with your scarecrow.
  - The Garden is not responsible for loss or damage to scarecrows while on display or in the drop-off/pick-up area.
